Note

Definitions:

* Due to the irregular market quoting for some fine wool categories, figures shown relating to micron categories below 18 micron are an estimate based on the AWEX Premium & Discounts Report & other available information.

* For any category, where there is insufficient quantity offered to enable AWEX to quote, a quote will be provided based on the best available information.

* A Percentile, is a value on a scale of one hundred that indicates the percent of a distribution that is equal to or below it. In general a percentile between 25% and 75% is considered normal, a percentile below 25% is considered below normal and a percentile above 75% is considered above normal.

Three and ten year percentiles shown in the table above, detail the period of time during the past 3 & 10 years that the market has traded either at or below its current price. The higher the percentile, the stronger the market.

MARKET COMMENTARY

One Australian Dollar = 0.913614 US as of:

4/07/2013

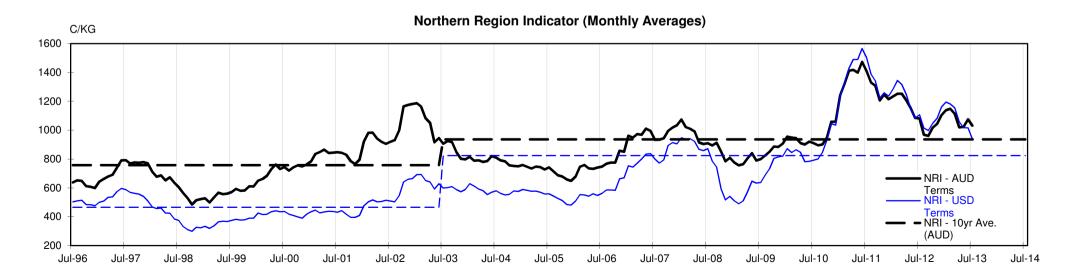

NORTHERN REGION – Sale Week 01/13 (34,875 bales offered nationally)

The first sale of the new season and the second last sale before the recess saw the market continue to recede, with falls recorded across most categories on both days.

Wednesdays market saw merino fleece retreat by generally 20-30 cents, skirtings were 30-40 cents off the pace, while the carding & crossbred markets were almost untouched, closing par to 5 cents cheaper.

On Thursday the market continued to soften, with the better style finer types losing a further 20-30 cents, while the medium microns were generally 10 cents cheaper. Crossbreds were 5-10 cheaper, while the underlying strength remained with the carding market, which was firm to 5 cents dearer.

The forward market did however show some positive news on Thursday, with 14000 kilos (~112 bales) of 19 & 19.5 selling on Riemann at a 10-15 cents premium for August/September 2013 settlement.
