NORTHERN REGION – Sydney Sale S24/06

In the last sale prior to the 2006 Christmas recess, the wool market posted further welcome rises. 68,644 bales were rostered for sale nationally (third largest offering for the season to date). Sales were held in Sydney over two days.

On Tuesday, solid gains of 10-15 cents were made in the medium to broad micron fleece categories. Finer fleece categories remained solid, posting minor gains of 3-5 cents. All merino skirtings were fully firm, locks finished a little irregular while crutchings & stains were unchanged. The crossbred market was also generally unchanged 25-26 microns were slightly easier while 27-30 microns closed fully firm.

On Wednesday, a late rally helped 17 micron fleece rise up to 20 cents, 19-19.5 advanced by about 15 cents, 22 micron & broader closed around 10 cents dearer, while the remainder of the merino fleece market was firm to 5 cents dearer. Better style & length skirtings attracted premiums, while all others remained firm. Locks & stains were generally unchanged while crutchings gained 3-5 cents. The crossbred market was also firm to 5 cents dearer.

Sales resume in Sydney on Wednesday 10th January (S28/06) with 53,900 bales currently rostered nationally.
